Sexual Assault Victim Advocacy School
Madison Concourse Hotel, Madison
November 3-6, 2014

This training addresses the basics of being a victim advocate — answering the crisis line, providing individual and systems advocacy and providing outreach in your community.

Participants will have opportunities to practice skills necessary to provide comprehensive advocacy for victims. New sexual assault victim advocates, domestic violence victim advocates, and other professionals who want to learn more about sexual violence are encouraged to attend.

Registration/Scholarships
The registration deadline is October 10. Registration is available at:

Registration for the training is free for Sexual Assault Service Providers (SASPs) and WCASA members. The training is otherwise $150. A limited number of scholarships for registration and lodging or mileage are available for SASPs and members. Please see the above link for more information.

Schedule

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Monday-Wednesday</th>
<th>Among the topics included are*:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>8:00 am—5:00 Training</td>
<td>Advocacy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Historical Trauma</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Trauma Informed Care</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Outreach and Awareness</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prevention</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Self-Care</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Legal Issues</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Survivor Stories</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Neurobiology of Sexual Assault</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Interactive Exercises</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

* A complete listing of sessions and descriptions will be made available closer to the training at:
http://www.wcasa.org/pages/Intervention_SAVAS.php

Online Component
This training will consist of an in-person component, in addition to a series of sessions via webinar prior to and after the training. To get the full benefit of the school, WCASA encourages advocates to complete both components. Participants will be asked to show they have completed each session.
Sexual Assault Victim Advocacy School
Madison Concourse Hotel, Madison
November 3–6, 2014

register online at

Fees
The fee is waived for WCASA sexual assault service providers (SASPs)*. The fee for this training is $150 for non-SASPs and can either be paid via credit card at http://www.wcasa.org/pages/Online-Payment-Processing.php or by sending a check in to WCASA. Payment ensures your spot.

*To see if you are listed as one of the 50 WCASA SASPs go to www.wcasa.org/pages/SASPs.php.

Lodging
WCASA has set aside a room block for the nights of November 2–5 at the single occupancy rate of $70/night; you will be responsible for making your own arrangements, unless you are granted a scholarship for lodging. Guest rooms, including incidentals (telephone calls, in-room movies, etc.) incurred at the hotel will be at your own expense. The hotel will hold the block of rooms until October 5; after this date requests for reservations will be accepted based on space and availability. Make sure to refer to the Wisconsin Coalition Against Sexual Assault room block when making reservations.

A limited number of scholarships for registration and lodging or mileage are available for SASPs and members. To apply for a scholarship, see the registration link: https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/SAVASNov2014.

The Madison Concourse Hotel is located at 1 West Dayton Street, Madison, WI 53703. To make a reservation call 800-356-8293 and ask for the block under Wisconsin Coalition Against Sexual Assault. Those who have applied for a scholarship need not reserve a room at this time. If your scholarship application is approved we will make the reservation for you.

Meals
Due to grant restrictions, WCASA is no longer able to provide refreshments for breaks or lunch. Breakfast is included at the hotel; Dinner will be on your own. Lunch and dinner options are available nearby.

Cancellation Policy:
In order to maintain the high quality of training programs at little or no cost and offer scholarships for training, please notify WCASA if you need to cancel as soon as possible. Failure to inform us in a timely manner may result in WCASA seeking reimbursement for non-reimbursable costs and may impact your availability to be granted scholarships in the future. Please be aware that you may be responsible for the cost of one night’s stay if you cancel later than 24 hours before your check-in date/time.