What’s up for Sexual Assault Awareness Month?

Connect with others hear what is being planned across the state. And hear what is going on at the national level from Laura Palumbo at NSVRC.

Laura Palumbo is the Prevention Campaign Specialist at the National Sexual Violence Resource Center. Laura works collaboratively with national partners, media, and leaders in the anti-sexual violence movement in planning and implementing Sexual Assault Awareness Month (SAAM), an annual nationwide campaign to raise public awareness about sexual violence and educate communities and individuals on how to prevent sexual violence. For five years she has led NSVRC in developing campaigns on healthy sexuality as sexual violence prevention and creating materials for advocates, parents, youth and college students.
