Statewide Directors Meeting
May 13-14, 2015
Agenda

May 13, 2015
10:00 am  Welcome and Coalition Check-Ins

10:30 am  Duality of Services: Panel Presentation
A diverse panel of domestic and sexual violence services providers will share perspectives on the intersections and distinct qualities of DV/SA victim services, the challenges of services provision in today’s world. Time for questions will be provided.

12:00 pm  Lunch on your own

1:00 pm  Group Work and Discussions: The Big Questions Facing DV/SA Services Providers
Participants will work in small groups, addressing “big questions” of interest. Group work will focus on generating innovative solutions to build into our collective future work. Report out and feedback time will be included.

4:30 pm  Wrap up for the Day

6:00 pm  WCASA invites participants to join together over dinner to discuss funding for SA Services. Location TBD

May 14, 2015
8:30 am  Check In and Welcome to Day 2!

8:45 am  What Does Access Across the Intersections Look Like for DV/SA Victims?
Presented by Mark Sweet, Trainer and Consultant at Disability Rights Wisconsin (DRW)

Victims come to us with a wide range of intersecting identities, issues, and multiple levels of victimization. This presentation will invite thinking...and conversation...on how our advocacy organizations can provide access to services to all.
