

Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA)

Advocacy Manual

Advocate Trainings

Presented by: Ian Henderson, Associate Director, WCASA
Alma Mann, Programs Coordinator, WCASA
Leigha Weber, PREA Coordinator, WI Department of Corrections

WCASA and the Department of Corrections (DOC) are pleased to announce a series of regional training opportunities to roll out the recently revised Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) Advocacy Manual.

Attendees will:

- Receive a copy of the new manual, including the new inmate rights video developed by WCASA and DOC
- Network and problem solve with other advocates
- Learn best practices for serving incarcerated survivors
- Discuss challenging scenarios advocates may encounter while providing services to incarcerated survivors.

Note: This training is not intended to serve as a PREA “101” training. For advocates who are wishing to learn PREA basics, we recommend you view the PREA webinar here prior to attending one of the regional trainings.
