We are all responsible for teaching young boys and girls about respect and healthy relationships. More importantly, we are all responsible for modeling good behavior.

The mission of the Wisconsin Coalition Against Sexual Assault is to create the social change necessary to end sexual violence. Help is available in your community.

Call for information and volunteer opportunities.

Local Information: