New Day Shelter Turns 30

30th Anniversary 1983-2013

Congratulations to New Day Shelter on celebrating their 30th anniversary. Read more about it in our interview with Kathy Roper, Executive Director.

Survivor Spot
Backyard Hero Award

Local playwright and activist Callen Harty worked with CSW member nonprofits Outreach, Rape Crisis Center, and WCASA—along with other groups and individuals—to increase awareness about child sexual abuse. Callen organized the very successful “Paths to Healing” conference—and he illustrated the great power that results when dedicated volunteers work with CSW’s committed nonprofit groups.

We congratulate Callen on his dedication and his award!

November Awareness Months

Nonprofit Awareness Month
For more information on non-profits in Wisconsin, visit the Wisconsin Nonprofits Association.

Native American Heritage Month
President Obama signed a Proclamation on 11/1 regarding November as National Native American Heritage Month, 2013.

For additional information, visit American Indians Against Abuse (AIAA)
We are excited to share and highlight a variety of materials focused on elder sexual abuse prevention and intervention offered by The National Sexual Violence Resource Center. Of particular note are:

- Safe at any age: A curriculum designed to educate elders in Pennsylvania communities about sexual violence
- Addressing Elder Sexual Abuse: Developing a community response
- Interactive Training Exercises on Abuse in Later Life

More information on these.

Although there is a wealth of information on the internet, accessing it can be challenging. This month we offer a variety of practical tips you can try for expanding your internet search, whether you’re looking for up-to-date research, funding opportunities, or new ideas for prevention, outreach, and advocacy. More here.
